IFAs' Future in Asian Distribution Issue

Article Summaries:

IFAs in Hong Kong

Regulatory boundaries and attractive commissions from insurance products discourage Hong Kong's independent financial advisors (IFAs) from selling retail mutual funds.

IFAs in India

Gradual implementation of a well-intentioned regulation on commissions and fees would have allowed the industry time to find new business models and adjust to compliance costs.

REITs in Japan

Japanese funds investing into U.S. real estate investment trusts (REITs) continue to draw large flows despite regulatory scrutiny.

Report Spotlight: Asset Management in Southeast Asia 2012

Costs are rising and revenues are moderating in the key Southeast Asian markets.
